

Health Care

We have held multiple events exploring health care in Alaska. Most recently, November 2017 to January 2018, we held a series exploring high health care costs in Alaska. Much more information is available here.

We also held a panel discussion in 2015 exploring high health care costs. This discussion was the result of our fiscal events which indicated that high health care costs were aggravating the state's fiscal crisis. More information here.