

In Favor of Additional Substantial Budget Cuts

Melodie Wilterdink, Associate Director at APF

Combined Value of CBR and SBR by Year

We've spent the last five years running down our budget reserves. Unfortunately, if the projections are correct, we're not experiencing a revenue slump or a "rainy day." What we're seeing is a new normal with which we must grapple. Alaska needs a sustainable, stable budget to foster prosperity for future generations.